

Publishing Contract

[Book Working Title]

1. Governing Law

This contract shall be governed by and construed according to the laws of the State of Michigan in the United States of America.

2. Parties to the Contract & Work to be Published

This contract between [author], hereafter referred to as the author, and Rainbowdash Publishers LLC (rainbowdashpublishersllc@umich.edu), hereafter referred to as the publisher, to publish [book title], hereafter referred to as the book, has been entered into on [date].

3. Copyright & Publishing Rights

The author shall be responsible for obtaining and enforcing the copyright on the book. The publisher shall retain in perpetuity the right to sell the book in each and every format in which the author requests the publisher to produce the book and in which the publisher actually produces the book. The author retains the right to publish the book in any additional formats, so long as doing so does not put the publisher in breach of contract with third party vendors.

4. Royalty Distribution

Sales reduced by fees and expenses directly related to the sales of those copies shall be divided between the author and the publisher with the author receiving 90% and the publisher receiving 10% with the author eligible to receive money from sales within 120 days of such sales. Authors are responsible for any banking fees including postage, wire transfers, or similar. Payments shall be paid out as specified by the authors below subject to updating from time to time.

Name	Percentage	Bank	Method	Additional Information	Schedule

5. Severability

If any provision of this contract should be or become invalid, such invalidity shall not in any way affect any of the other provisions of this contract, which shall continue to remain in full force and effect.
